Individually:

1. Use your map to write scenarios and user user stories Sommervile pg. 63-69
2. From your scenario and user stories develop your features

Group:

1. Look at your group members scenarios and stories and generate a feature list

Submission Instructions:

Submit a document containing the following

- Scenarios (20)

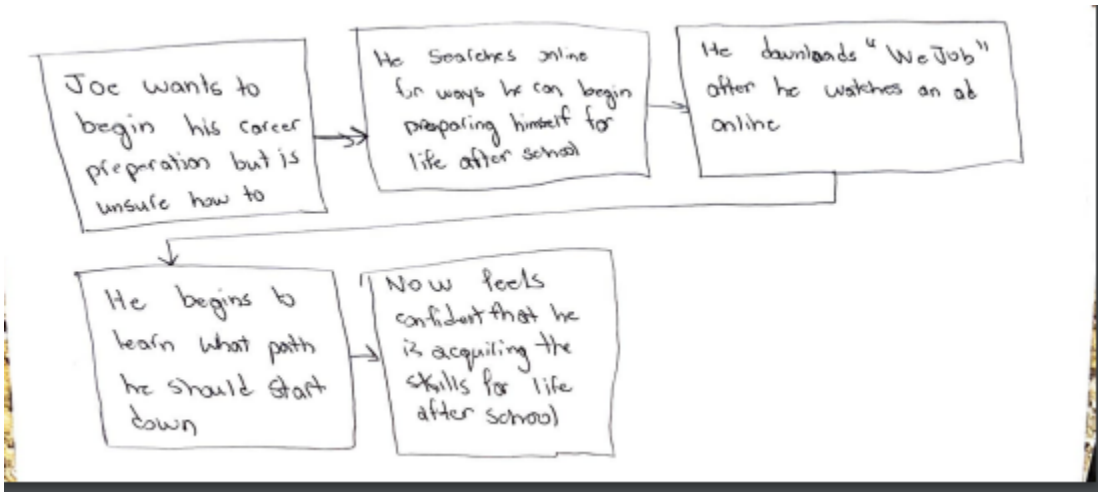
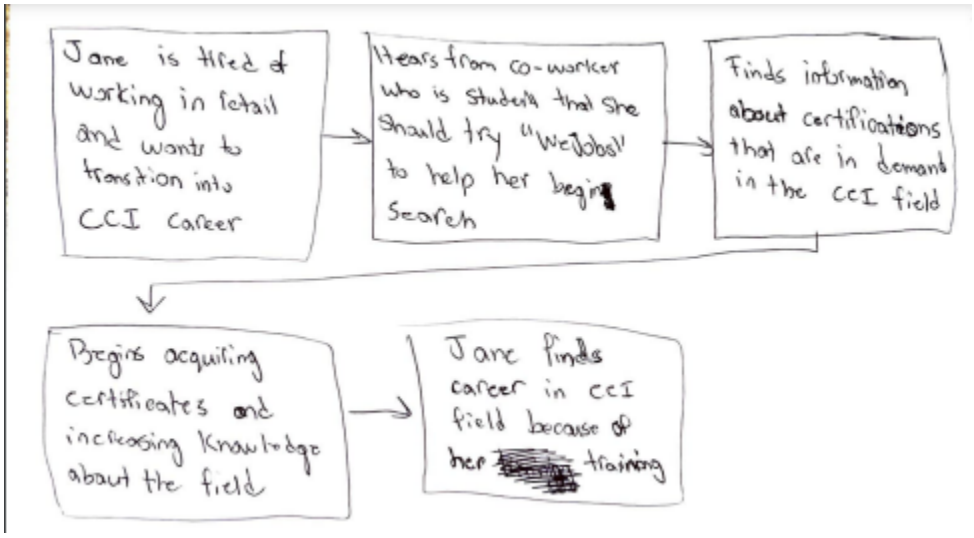
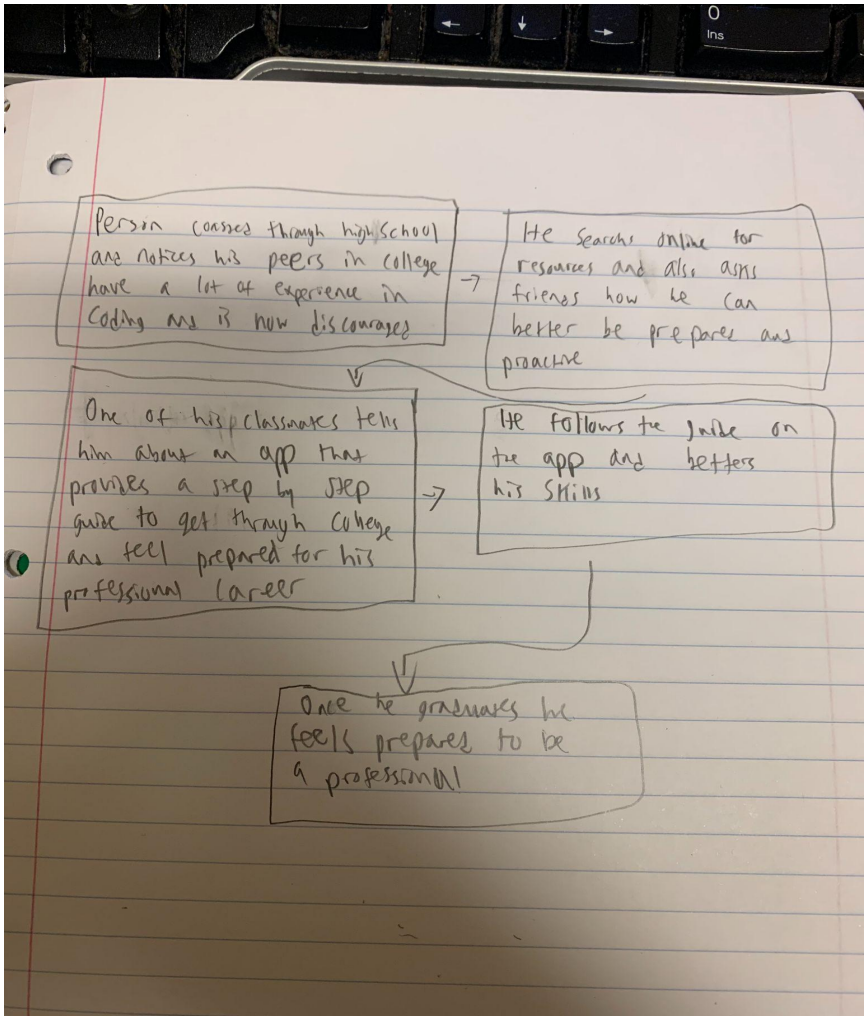
Scenario #1: Joe Schmoe



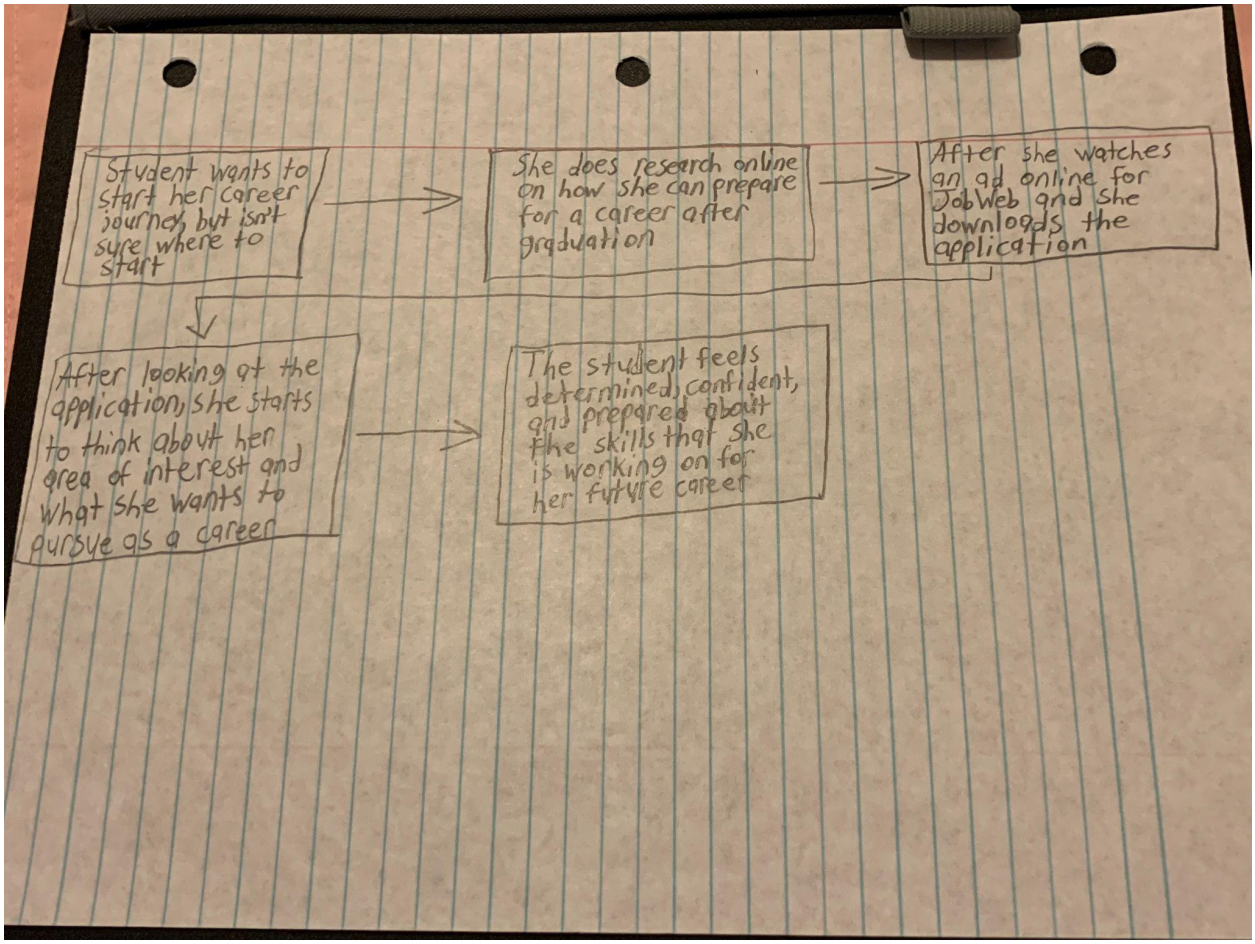
Scenario #2: Jane Doe



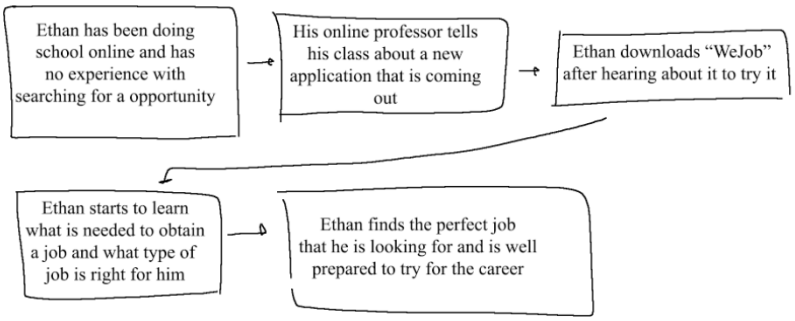
Scenario #3: Person



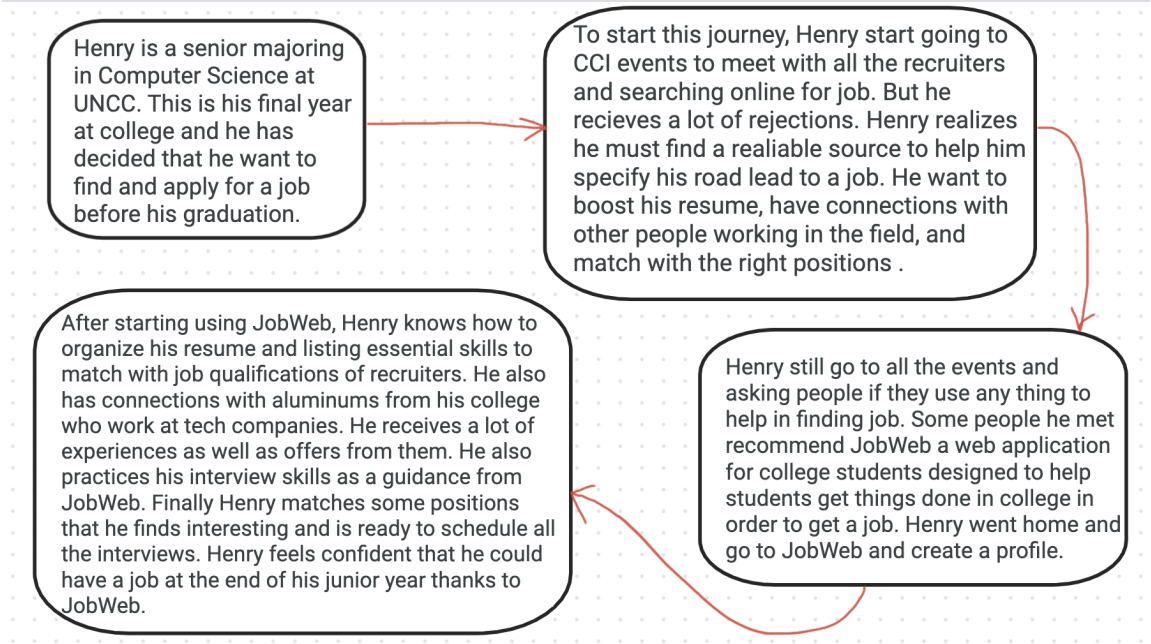
Scenario #4(Erin Brunson): Student



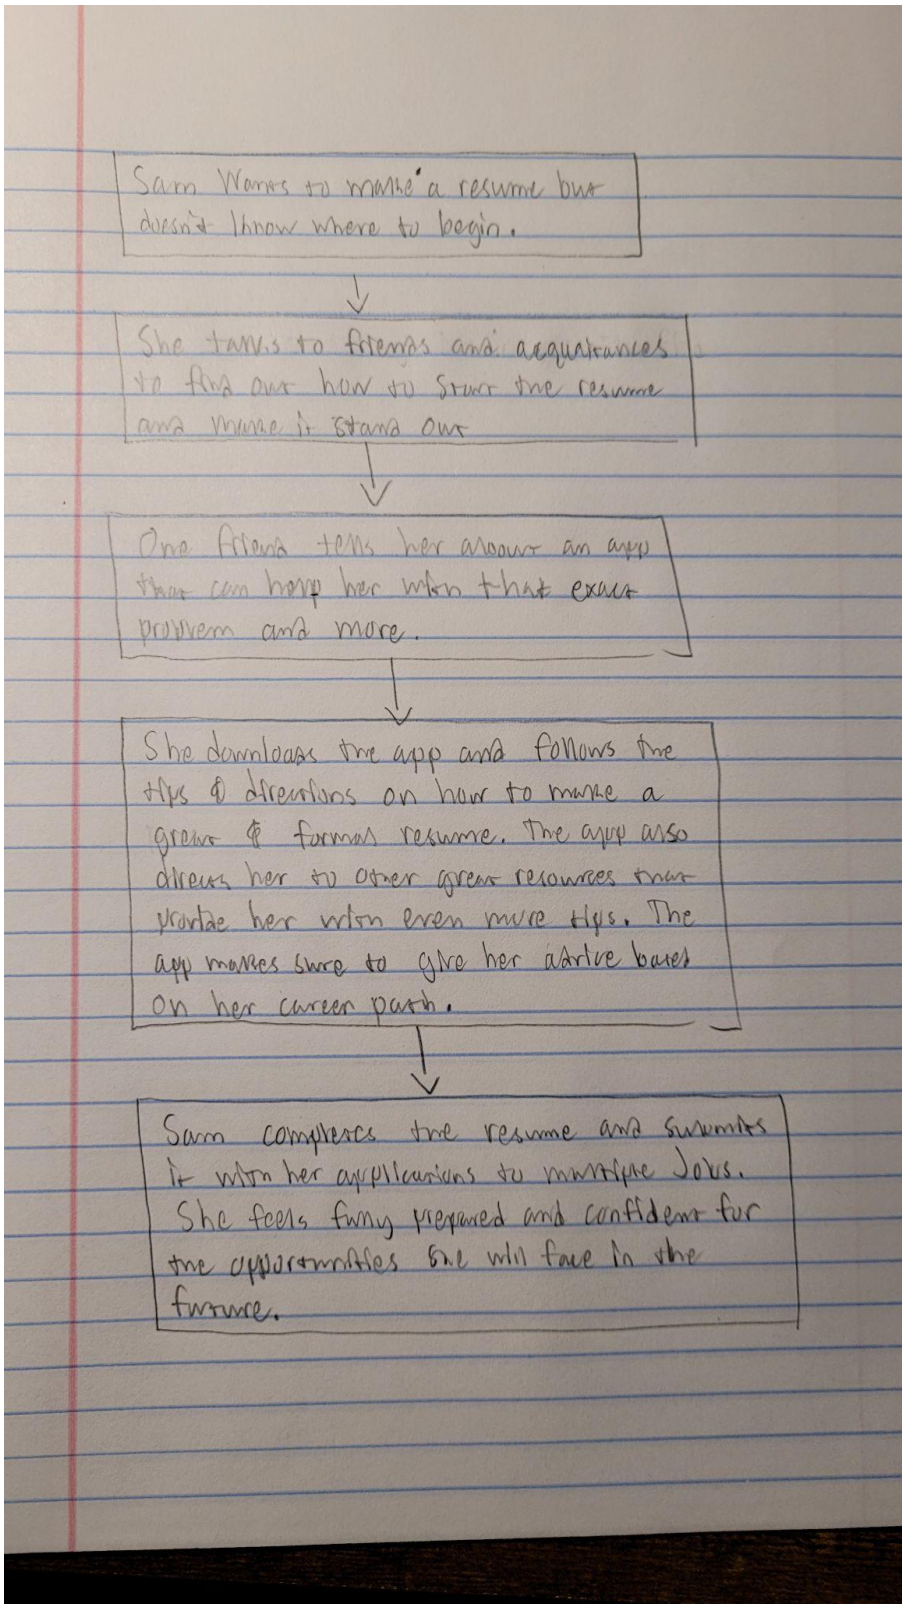
Scenario #5(An Te Ku) : Ethan



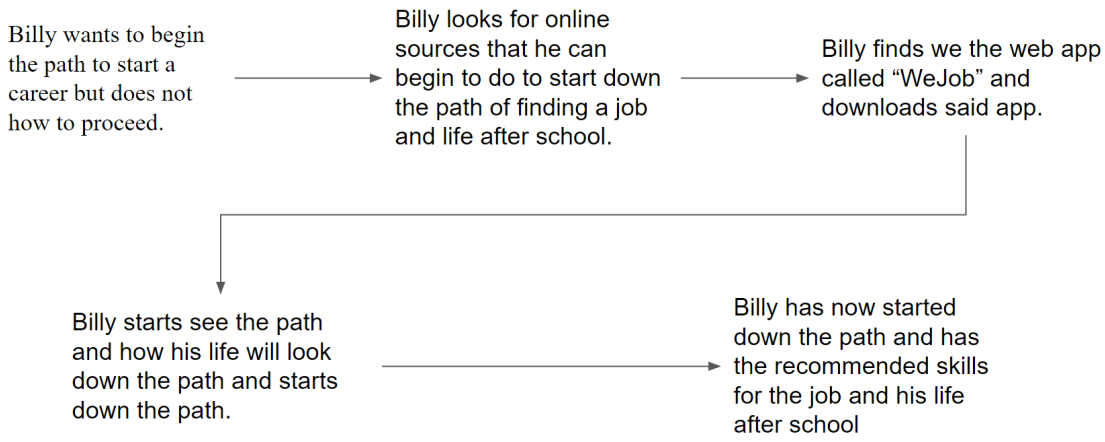
Scenario #6(Linh Hung) : Henry Duck



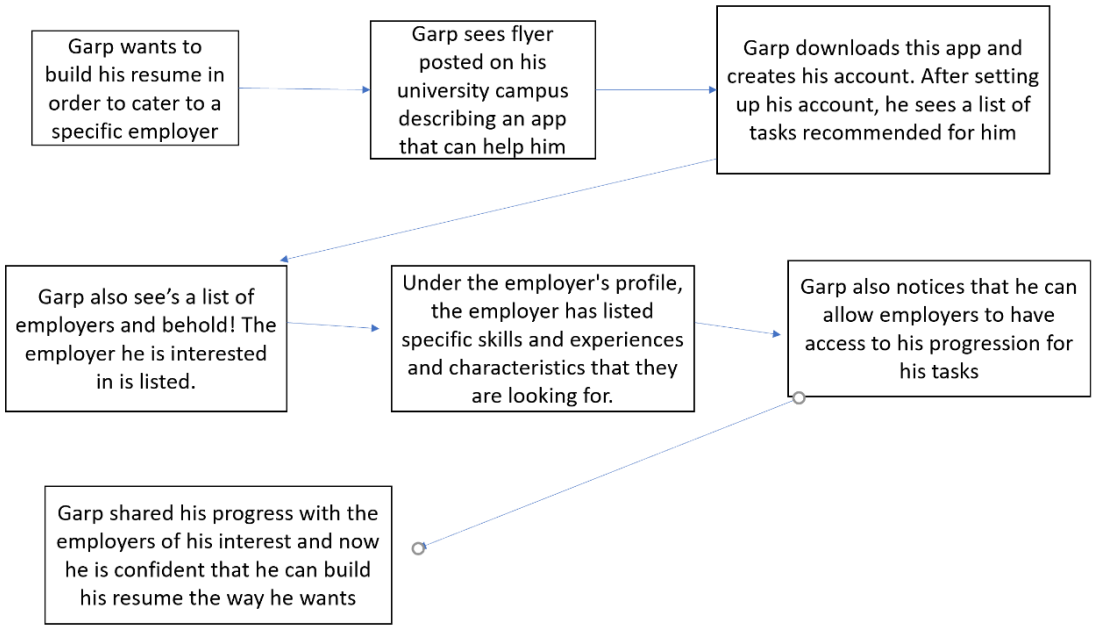
Scenario #7(Kye Henry) : Sam



Scenario #8: Austin Black



Scenario #9: Success Odoemena



User stories (20)

- As a user, I want to be able to discard suggestions I don't like
- As a user, I want to know similar career paths to the one I have chosen in case i want to switch
- As a user I want, I want to have access to a mentor in case I have questions
- As a user, I want to be able to explore the application for career and job opportunities.
- As a user, I need to be able to bring together a formal and proper resume in order to get a better chance at being noticed by businesses that are looking for people to hire.
- As a user, I need to be able to connect with employees who work at the company I apply for so I can learn more about the hiring process and the company environment.
- As an employer, I want to be able to lookup applicants and see what kind of milestones they have reacher
- As an employer, I need to be able to verify the information on applicants that refer me to the platform for reference
- As an employer, I want to be able to view the applicant's progress therefore, I can be proactive and prepare for the next step of the hiring process.

- Feature list (10)
  - Ability for users to change their currently selected career path.
  - Give the options to create a custom process for the users based on their input information.
  - Link all the categories that the user needs to complete on the finding job journey.
  - Give the user the option to put what they are not interested in.
  - Give the option for the user to expand the network based on the user's selections.
  - The home page to track current posting activity based on the people, companies and topics users interested in.
  - Recommend open positions to users based on user profile.
  - Ability to reach a mentor for questions.
  - Have the option to provide feedback.
  - Give employers the option to verify specified user's completed tasks.